Adolescent Decision Making and Uncertainty
International House
Davis, California
May 16, 2008

8:30-9:00  CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

SESSION I

9:00  Valerie Reyna (Human Development and Psychology, Cornell)
Risk and Rationality in Adolescent Decision Making: A
Fuzzy-Trace Theory Approach

9:45  Lisa Crockett (Psychology, University of Nebraska, Lincoln)
Adolescent Decision Making in Developmental Context

10:30  BREAK

SESSION II

10:45  Andrew Parker (RAND Corporation)
Adolescent (Over)Confidence and Risk

11:30  Ross Matsueda (Sociology, University of Washington)
Crime, Deterrence, and Rational Choice:Modeling Adolescent Risk Perceptions and Illegal Behavior

12:15-1:15  LUNCH

SESSION III

1:15  Wandi Bruine de Bruin (Social & Decision Sciences, Carnegie Mellon University)
Can Adolescents Predict Significant Life Events?

2:00 - 3:00  Discussion

Sponsored by:
Economy, Justice and Society
Institute of Governmental Affairs
Department of Psychology